Improve Aftermarket Services With Documoto at World of Asphalt

DENVER, March 8, 2022 (Newswire.com) - Documoto, a

Denver-based software company specializing in digital publishing and interactive content management for equipment manufacturers, is pleased to announce how parts catalogs are a critical component of sales and customer support for many equipment manufacturers at the upcoming World of Asphalt and the co-located AGG1 Aggregates Academy and Expo on March 29-31, 2022.

The World of Asphalt and AGG1 Aggregates Academy and Expo, organized by the National Asphalt Pavement

Association (NAPA), Association of Equipment Manufacturers (AEM), and National Stone, Sand, and Gravel Association (NSSGA), are held in Nashville annually. With over 10,000 attendees expected to arrive, the co-located event is projecting 400 exhibitors and 150 education sessions. Over three days, attendees in construction will be able to purchase equipment, products, and services from the show to enhance their heavy equipment businesses.

The Documoto team will present its software to attendees seeking product demonstrations illustrating how Documoto's solution helps equipment manufacturers create digital parts catalogs and improve the aftermarket sales and support experience. Additionally, equipment manufacturers attending the event can learn more about the benefits of using Documoto within their organization.

Some of the benefits of utilizing the Documoto software include:

- An increase in online sales revenue
- Improved employee productivity and support time
- Streamlined parts distribution in real-time
- The ability to add and edit product documentation accurately
- A shorter order processing and shipping time
- A reduction in parts identification and machine downtime
- An enhanced customer support experience and wait time

Equipment manufacturers in construction who are looking to improve their aftermarket sales and support processes can learn more at level three, exhibit 1051, or by visiting https://bit.ly/3pogpkg.
